2. Amtmann and Tremaine Fellowships

The Bernard Amtmann Fellowship is offered in memory of Bernard Amtmann (1907-79), the noted bookseller and specialist in Canadiana. The Fellowship will be offered for the first time in 1992 and every three years thereafter to support the work of a scholar in one of Mr Amtmann's principal areas of interest: Canadiana, book collecting, bookselling, and bibliography. Special consideration will be given to applications from those working on some aspect of the book trade. The Fellowship, which is in the amount of $1,500, is open to non-Canadians and to those who are not members of the Bibliographical Society of Canada.

The Tremaine Fellowship is offered in memory and through the generosity of Marie Tremaine (1902-84), the doyenne of Canadian bibliographers. The Fellowship was instituted in 1987 and is offered annually to support the work of a scholar engaged in some area of bibliographical research, including textual studies and publishing history, and with a particular emphasis on Canada. The Fellowship, which is in the amount of $1,000, is open only to members of the Bibliographical Society of Canada.

Both fellowships will be awarded only in support of specific research projects, involving discrete areas of research. Projects which are part of some larger undertaking will not be considered unless they can be completed on their own and can lead to findings which are reportable or publishable in themselves. The funds available are for out-of-pocket expenses such as travel fares and subsistence, and technical services or supplies, and may not be used for salaries or stipends.

Applications should be made on the form attached at the end of this issue of the Bulletin and must be accompanied by a detailed budget proposal, a full curriculum vitae, and two sealed letters of reference. They should be mailed to The Chair, Fellowships Committee, Bibliographical Society of Canada, P.O. Box 575, Postal Station P, Toronto, ON M5S 2T1, and must be postmarked no later than 28 February 1992.

4. Notice of the National Conference in Charlottetown

The Third National Conference on "Canadian Bibliography: Achievements, Challenges, and Opportunities" is sponsored by the Association for Canadian Studies, the Bibliographical Society of Canada, and the National Library of Canada. The conference will be held with the Learneds in Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, on 31 May and 1 June 1992.

The purpose of this third national conference is to review progress since the first national conference in 1974; to identify existing gaps within Canadian Bibliography; to examine the impact of technology on bibliography; and to make recommendations to close the gaps and to increase the dissemination of bibliographies.

Plans include four keynote speakers: Ernie Ingles, G. Thomas Tanselle, Robin Alston, and another to be confirmed. Over the two-day period there will be ten concurrent sessions. There will be two sessions each morning and one each afternoon. Each session will be 90 minutes long. Two subject areas will be discussed at each session and at each session there will be a chair, a presenter for each subject, and a respondent. The two presenters will have 20 minutes each, the respondent 10 minutes, and the remaining 15 minutes will be given to audience discussion. The chair and respondent will be responsible for taking the results of each discussion to the plenary session at the end of the conference. There will also be a session devoted to bibliographies in progress. Resolutions will come forward from the plenary session. For further information and to make suggestions, contact: Eric L. Swanick, Legislative Library, P.O. Box 6000, Fredericton, NB E3B 5H1, 506-453-2338, FAX 506-453-7154.

La troisième conférence nationale sur "La bibliographie canadienne: Réalisations, défis, perspectives" est parrainée par l'Association d'études canadiennes, la Société bibliographique du Canada et la Bibliothèque nationale du Canada. Ce congrès se tiendra dans le cadre des réunions des Sociétés savantes à Charlottetown, à l'Ile-du-Prince-Edouard, du 31 mai au 1er juin 1992.

Cette troisième conférence nationale a comme objectif d'examiner les progrès effectués depuis la première conférence sur la bibliographie de 1974; d'identifier les lacunes existant dans le monde de la bibliographie canadienne et de son soutien aux études canadiennes; d'examiner l'impact de la technologie sur la compilation et la dissemination des bibliographies; de faire des recommandations pour combler les lacunes et accroître la dissémination des bibliographies.

6. SSHRCC Terminates Canadian Studies Research Tools Program

The Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada has decided to terminate the Canadian Studies Research Tools Program. Initiated by SSHRCC in 1981-82 to further the development of Canadian studies, the CSRT program has funded archival and bibliographical projects to a maximum of $75,000 per year or a maximum of $250,000 for a three-year period. The last competition of the CSRT program was held in 1991. Candidates have now been notified or the results of the CSRT competition. Projects, which received funding in previous years, were listed in the fall issue of the Bulletin and have also been listed in SSHRCC's Annual Reports.

Although SSHRCC has eliminated the CSRT program it will continue to provide funding for research tools in general through its Research and Strategic Grants programs. SSHRCC will be integrating support for the creation of research tools, beginning with the competitions of 15 October 1992. Criteria regarding the eligibility of applicants, the eligibility of proposals, selection, and the evaluation process are now being drafted by SSHRCC. Applicants who wish to apply for funding of a research tool, but who are uncertain of the appropriate program, are advised to contact Julie Dompierre, Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada, P.O. Box 1619, 255 Albert Street, Ottawa, ON K1P 6G4.

The Council of the Bibliographical Society of Canada will be monitoring the integration of research tools into SSHRCC's regular programs. Members of the BSC who apply to SSHRCC for funding of a bibliographical project in future competitions are asked to inform the President of the BSC Council of the success of their application or of any difficulties incurred.

7. 1991 Research Fellows of the Bibliographical Society of America

The Bibliographical Society of America established in 1983 a program of short-term Fellowships to help support scholars undertaking research associated with the study of the history of books and printing. The BSA is pleased to announce the Research Fellows named in its ninth annual competition:

Marc H. Aronson, New York University, "Reader, Buyer, Juror: William Crary Brownell and the Public"

Thomas F. Bonnell, Saint Mary's College, "Booksellers and Literary Canons: Collections of English Poetry, 1765-1810"

Roderick G. Cave, Victoria University of Wellington, New Zealand, "English Fine Printing, 1920-60, with Special Reference to the Golden Cockerel Press"

Michele Valerie Cloonan, University of California, Los Angeles, "Bookbinding in 19th-century America: From Handcraft to Industrialized Trade"

Lisa Fagin Davis, Yale University, "A Study and Reconstruction of the Lambach Antiphonary"

Alice Elizabeth Fahs, New York University, "Publishing the Civil War: Northern Publishers and the Literary Marketplace of War, 1861-1865"

David Finkelstein, University of Edinburgh, "Preliminary Research for a History of the Publishing Firm William Blackwood & Sons"

Alison Knowles Frazier, Columbia University, "Italian Humanists as Authors of Vitae sanctorum, 1417-1521"

Lawrence S. Rainey, Yale University, "Towards a Critical Edition of The Waste Land Manuscripts"

Inquiries about the Fellowship Program should be addressed to the Executive Secretary, BSA, P.O. Box 397, Grand Central Station, New York, New York, 10163, U.S.A.

Fellowship Committee: Richard F. Landon (chairman), Katharine F. Pantzer, Andrew B. Myers, Michael T. Ryan.

8. Notice of New Projects

An Index to the Canadian Bookman (1909-1910, 1919-1939) will be compiled by Grace Heggie and Anne McGaughey, York University, as a sabbatical project during 1992. Duncan McLaren will publish and distribute the publication since the Index will provide access to his microfilm of the Canadian Bookman.

Canadian Magazine (v. 1-91, 1893-1939), a significant periodical, deserves a complete and modern index. Grace Heggie expects to begin work on this project in 1994. An "annotated" index is planned, perhaps using the abstract field in the Authex program as a means to provide notes. Any publication that may result from this work shall be dedicated to the memory of Beth Miller.

9. Notes and Queries: Penal Press Publications

Robert Gaucher and Curtis Taylor are seeking information about holdings of Canadian Penal Press publications. These publications have been produced by prisoners in Canadian penal institutions since 1949. They have discovered that primary collections are lodged in the National Library, university libraries, and in provincial archives. Their research to date has identified approximately 2,000 issues under 130 titles. Their intention is to create one inclusive collection of the scattered remnants which will be held in the University of Ottawa Library Documentation Centre. In the meantime they also intend to construct the history of this fascinating and little known Canadian medium, especially as it relates to Canadian penal reform. They are interested in detailed information on holdings and on access for reproduction. If you have information on these penal press publications please contact: Robert Gaucher and Curtis Taylor, Criminology Department, Faculty of Social Sciences, University of Ottawa, 1 Stewart, Ottawa, ON K1N 6N5 (613-564-4070; FAX 613-564-9976).

10. New Publications of Note

Marlys Chevrefils, Special Collections, University Libraries, University of Calgary, has compiled The Clark Blaise Papers: First Accession and Second Accession: An Inventory of the Archive at the University of Calgary Libraries (University of Calgary Press 1991). This is the fourteenth volume in the Canadian Archival Inventory Series and was funded by SSHRCC Research Tools Program. The series is edited by Hallvard Dahlie and this volume was edited by Jean Tener, University Archivist, and Apollonia Steele, Special Collections Librarian. The biocritical essay is by Catherine Sheldrick Ross, University of Western Ontario.

The Edgar and Dorothy Davidson Collection of Canadiana at Mount Allison University, compiled by the staffs of the Centre for Canadian Studies and the Ralph Pickard Bell Library under the general editorship of Dr. Larry McCann, Davidson Professor of Canadian Studies, has been published. The Davidson Collection of Canadiana is a minor treasure of nearly 600 rare first-edition books and early imprints spanning the seventeenth to the nineteenth centuries. This bibliography is organized in five main sections: French and French Influence, English and English Influence, Arctic Exploration, The Western Frontier, and Early Canadian Imprints. Among the vivid accounts of Canadian exploration and settlement are personal testimonies of battles, ethnographies of Native peoples, early histories of the country, scientific and religious treatises, and examples of government propaganda. Accompanying the full bibliographic entries are about seventy illustrations. There are also indexes to authors, titles, publishers, printers, maps, cartographers, illustrators, works by genre, and subjects. For more information or to order ($200, US$190, edition limited to 500) write: Centre for Canadian Studies, Mount Allison University, Sackville, New Brunswick, E0A 3C0.

11. RSVP Canadian Periodicals Session

The 24th annual conference of the Research Society for Victorian Periodicals, entitled "Transatlantic Connections", will be held at the Quality Hotel Capital Hill in Washington D.C. 21-24 November 1991. An entire session devoted to nineteenth-century Canadian periodicals will feature papers on "English and French-Language Periodicals and the Development of a Literary Culture in Canada (Mary Lu MacDonald), "The Role of University Magazines in the Literary Life of Canada (Tom Vincent), "The Reporting of Crime in the Canadian Press" (Judith Knelman), and "C.I.H.M. Phase Two: The Micro-preservation of Canadian Periodicals" (David Bentley).

12. Notice of the New McGill Friends of the Library Group

The Friends of the Library, McGill University, has been established and members are being sought. There is no set fee; members simply donate whatever sum they wish, which goes to support acquisition of books and other library material. Friends are also invited to special programs. Upcoming programs include John Hobbins, "On the Edge of Greatness: The Papers of John Humphrey," 10 December 1991; Bruce Whiteman, "Poetry: `An Anachronism, like Spats:' The Contact Press" on 13 February 1992; Roger Williams, "The Ides of March: An Evening of Shakespeare," on 16 March 1992; Dr Hans Mo"ller, "Ludvig Holberg, the Danish Molière of the North," on 16 April 1992, and several invitation-only receptions. If you are interested in becoming a Friend, write to Friends of the Library, Office of the Director of Libraries, McGill University, 3459 McTavish Street, Montréal, PQ H3A 1Y1 or telephone 514-398-4677.

13. News from the Thomas Fisher Rare Book Library

"Eric Gill: His Life and Art" is featured in an exhibition at the Thomas Fisher Rare Book Library through December 1991. The majority of drawings, prints, and books come from a major private collection in Toronto and have not been publicly exhibited for fifty-seven years. Other items come from the University of Waterloo, Massey College Library, the Fisher Library, and the private collections of Richard Landon, Alan Horne, and Douglas Chambers. A catalogue of the exhibition, priced at $20 is available from the Office of Development, Robarts Library, University of Toronto. The exhibition was officially opened on 23 October with a lecture on "Eric Gill the Artist" by Joshua Heller, an antiquarian bookseller and collector from Washington, D.C., who specializes in private press and illustrated books.

The Friends of the Fisher Rare Book Library are also sponsoring other lectures for the 1991-92 season. On Tuesday, 19 November 1991, Guy Debenham, a Canadian wood engraver, will talk on "The Hidden Art of Bookplates." On Thursday, 13 February 1992, Patricia Fleming will speak on the search for imprints, the nature of analytical bibliography, and the book trade in early Canada. The season will end with a talk on Monday, 27 April 1992, when Anthony Rota, an antiquarian bookseller from London who specializes in modern English literature, will speak on "A Week in the Life of a London Bookshop."

Membership in the Friends is open to all interested persons. The individual membership fee is $50, supporting membership $100, associate $1,000, and patron $5,000. Income tax receipts are issued for amounts over the first $25. For more information or to become a Friend of the Thomas Fisher Rare Book Library write: Rita Crump, Assistant Director, Development and Public Affairs, University of Toronto Library, Toronto, ON M5S 1A5.

14. Notice of the Friends of the National Library of Canada

The National Library of Canada gathers, preserves, and promotes Canada's published heritage. Knowing about that heritage of ideas, images, and passions is vital to knowing Canada and Canadians. If you wish to become a Friend and help build and complete the National Library's collections of literary manuscripts, journals, and books, as well as scores, sheet music, and sound recordings write: The Friends of the National Library of Canada, 395 Wellington Street, Ottawa, ON K1A 0N4.

15. Notes from the Canadian Library Association Special Collections Interest Group Newsletter 1991

McMaster University Library announced that the William Ready Division of Archives and Research Collections has acquired the files of Canadian authors from the archives of the American publisher Dodd, Mead and Co. Funds to purchase the papers were provided by a Movable Cultural Property grant of $18,400 from the Ministry of Supply and Services - Communications, Canada. The files contain letters written by important Canadian authors, contracts sent to these authors for their signature and revision, correspondence with other publishers, internal memos, sales figures, printing information, and publicity material. Among the authors represented are Bliss Carman, Blodwen Davies, Philip Freund, John Murray Gibbon, Grey Owl, W.G. Hardy, Stephen Leacock, and Martha Ostenso. This material is a significant part of Canada's literary heritage. McMaster University Library already housed the publishing archives of McClelland and Stewart, the Macmillan Co. of Canada, Clarke Irwin, and Peter Martin Associates. (At McMaster a bibliography of all the publications issued by McClelland and Stewart from 1906 to 1985 is being compiled with the aid of a SSHRCC Canadian Studies Research Tools grant.) For more information contact: Charlotte A. Stewart-Murphy, Archives and Research Collections, 416-525-9140, ext. 4737.

The Dalhousie University Libraries is establishing a Canadian Literary Collections Project (CLCP), which will collect the published works and manuscript collections of Canadian contemporary authors of imaginative works in fiction, drama, and poetry; small press publications, literary periodicals, and selected works about contemporary literature. The papers and records of individuals or organizations related to the literary community and publishing will be collected, as will audio and video tapes of interviews, performances, readings, and other programs that may arise out of the activities of the CLCP. Priority will be given to Nova Scotia literature followed by other Maritime and Canadian literature. The Canadian Literary Collections Project should become a major national resource of regional literature. For more information on this project contact: Dr William F. Birdsall, University Librarian, Dalhousie University, 902-494-3601.

18. Marie Tremaine Medal: Call for Nominations

The Marie Tremaine Medal is awarded by the Bibliographical Society of Canada/Société bibliographique du Canada for outstanding service to Canadian bibliography and for distinguished publication in either English or French in that field. The medal will be awarded in 1992, preferably to a member of the Society or to a Canadian citizen. Members of the Council of the Society are not eligible for the award while they are in office.

Previous recipients of the Tremaine Medal have been Marie Tremaine, 1970; John Hare and Jean-Pierre Wallot, 1973; Bruce Braden Peel, 1975; William F.E. Morley, 1977; Reginald Eyre Watters, 1979; Olga Bernice Bishop, 1981; Alan F.J. Artibise, 1983; Douglas Grant Lochhead, 1985; Agnes Cecilia O'Dea, 1987; Sandra Alston, 1988; Gloria Strathern, 1989; and Claude Galarneau, 1990.

The Tremaine Medal Committee now invites nominations for this award. Each nomination must be supported by a biographical note, a list of principal publications, and other relevant information, and sent by 15 February 1992 to the Chair, Tremaine Medal Committee, Bibliographic Society of Canada, Box 575, Postal Station P, Toronto, ON M5S 2T1

La Medaille Marie Tremaine: Candidatures

La Socété bibliographique du Canada/Bibliographical Society of Canada attribue la Médaille Marie Tremaine pour services exceptionnels rendus à la cause de la bibliographie canadienne et pour des publications de haute qualité dans ce domaine, soit en francais, soit en anglais. La Société compte décerner la Medaille en 1992, avec préférence accordée aux membres de la Société et aux citoyens canadiens. Les membres du Conseil de la Société ne sont pas admissibles pendant les années de leur mandat.

Le Médaille Tremaine a précédemment été décernée à Marie Tremaine, 1970; John Hare et Jean-Pierre Wallot, 1973; Bruce Braden Peel, 1975; William F.E.
